Alternative Missions Board of Directors

Alternative Missions has been a recognized 501C3 certified non-profit organization since 1999. To facilitate the needs of the organization we have established a skilled and committed board of directors. Led by founder Tom Hackett, this board has faithfully served the missionaries and ministries of Alternative Missions for many years. The following is a list of our members along with a brief description of their background and number of years they have served with A.M. If you have any questions pertaining to A.M.'s board or its members, please contact us at info@alternativemissions.com.
