Designed for one-step removal, cleaning, and preparation of both smaller areas with limited access and larger wide open areas. The MODULE 200 is possibly the most versatile self-propelled shot blasting system available due to its maneuverable, compact and modular design. The blast width of the basic MODULE 200 can be quickly increased by the addition of one or two MODULE 200 Extension Unit. The resulting benefit is three choices in blast width at one height, and one set of spare wear parts.
